Aktion/Re Aktion

A two day event featuring Maryam Amini.
20-21 December , Monday and Tuesday.

Maryam Amini without doubt is at the forefront of Iranian contemporary art scene.

With her courageous attitude towards painting and self depiction ,she has almost no opportunity to show her art works in Tehran. This unwanted barrier, usually frustrates her but this time she raises to the challenge and invites you to a two day event.

She chooses Aaran Gallery's all white space and treats it as one of her canvases. If she has no public wall to hang her paintings, this time she has a "Space " to paint in.

Do not make a mistake, this is not a performance, this is Maryam Amini installing her motives on a blank space.

In recent months she has moved from two dimensional in to the realm of three dimensional. This is " Inception" A La Maryam.

She will be presenting her works on 20th December, in a room ablaze with light. It's about seeing and not seeing .About presence and Absence .Clarity and opaqueness.

On second day you will have to walk through a dynamic maze to find out what had happened on first day.

Her favorite motives of Childhood, Erotica ,Death ,etc.. are in one way or another referred to in this Aktion. This time in addition to her motives, people are installed in her White Space. We become willing or unwilling subjects of her painting.
